Your Personal Mission Statement

Develop your own unique mission statement. A mission statement can be multiple points or a single phrase. It is something that is for you and can be as grand or as simple as you desire...remember its YOUR mission!

Examples:

“I will serve God and my family throughout my life while building my own business.”

“I will be the best soccer player possible in high school and college while maintaining a 4.0 GPA”

The World Says:

“Find yourself...”

When & where did YOU get lost exactly?!?

Haven't YOU been here this whole time?!?

If you spend a lot of time “searching” for yourself you may not like who you find...

If you create and build yourself
you will find it much easier & enjoyable to live with who you become.
